Alleged Irregularities in the Records -It Is Worth While to a Policeman Seeking Promotion Not to Have Too Heavy Fines Standing Against Him.

That Partridge's appointment of his private secretary as complaint clerk of the Police Department the day before he stepped out of office was dictated by more than a desire to provide a berth for Mr. Cerkhill became apparent yesterday, when charges were filed against Deputy Clerk Robert S. Peterson, who for many years prior to Jan. 1 had acted as complaint lerk and keeper of the police records. Imme intely after giving the charges his approval Commissioner Greene suspended Peterson from duty without pay pending his trial, which was set for next

Who made the complaint against Peterson, is not declared, but there is reason to behave that it was Complaint Clerk Corkhill. As to the nature of the charges, Assistant District Attorney Morgan, who has pre-pared them, said last evening that they would be based on alleged irregularities in keeping the records. The complaint will say, according to Mr. Morgan, that certain records have an appearance which seems to indicate erasures. Almost all he documents under suspicion relate to the records of policemen.

A SUN reporter learned that the principal instance of irregularity specified in the complaint will be that of a uniformed man who was recently promoted. It is alleged that the record of that man has been changed in such a way that he obtained a place on the eligible list from which he would have been precluded had his record appeared in its proper form.

Should the charges against Peterson be proved, it is likely that the promotion of man just referred to will be revoked. There is ground to believe that this case was not unique and that other men have obtained their promotion in an illegal manher This implies the possibility that the entire engible list on which such promotions were based may be declared invalid.

A number of persons about Headquarters said yesterday that they would not be surprised at all if the charges against Peterson were only the first step toward a cleaning up of some branches of the department that have hitherto been supposed by the prevailing in others. It was hitted that torkhill's first step after his appointment was to have Patroiman James Dolan remanded to precinct duty. Dolan has been assigned to the complaint clerk's bureau for a number of years and had been Peterson's right hand man. Peterson was removed for a few days, but was finally removed from the bureau at the request of torkhill.

Mr. Corkhill refused absolutely to speak orkhill.

Mr. Corkhill refused absolutely to speak about the matter yesterday. From others connected with the investigation it was carned that a large number of irregularities originating in mere carelessness were the first to be discovered. Thus, for instance, was it found that the records of hine out of twelve inspectors were incorrect. These errors, however, were in almost every case detrimental to the standing of the officer concerned.

As the scrutiny of the records went on a he officer concerned.

As the scrutiny of the records went on a number of indications were discovered tending to show that many of them had been tampered with. It was furthermore found—and this is the most serious matter of all, as it will hamper the investigators badly—that a number of original documents had been destroyed and copies substituted. There is nothing but the signature of Peterson on the copies to guarannature of Peterson on the copies to guaran-ee their faithfulness.

Another fact brought out by the appointment of Corkhill was that the Civil Service Commissioners had changed Peterson's title on their records from deputy clerk to complaint cl vk. It was found necessary to have the civil service records formally corrected. This feature of the case will be further looked into. There has been a lot of talk lately of civil service examination lists being sold to members of the force at high prices.

Peterson has been in the employ of the Peterson has been in the employ of the department since 1876. His present salary is $1,900 a year. He owns a valuable house and other property in Mount Vernon. While President Roosevelt was a Police Com-missioner Peterson was charged by Policenan James J O'Brien with having attempted to extert from him $20 under pretence of reducing his fine from ten to one day's pay. The charges were dropped.

COL. E. F. BROWN DEAD. mander of the Fighting 28th Page

Away in His Eightleth Year. Col. Edwin Franklin Brown, Inspector-General of the national homes for dis-abled volunteer soldiers, died in his apartnents in the Westleigh in West 123d street yesterday morning of angina pectoris. His son, Judge Oren Britt Brown, and wife of Dayton Ohio, and other relatives were at his bedside.

Col. Brown came of good fighting stock. He was a son of Jeremiah Brown, who was a captain in the War of 1812, and his mother was the daughter of a R volutionary officer, In the Civil War he was among the first to volunteer and assist in organizing companies, and was commissioned Lieutenant-Colonel of the Twenty-eighth New York Infantry Volunteers, which entered the United States service in May, 1861, and was mustered out on June 2, 1863.

In the battle of Cedar Mountain on Aug. 9, 1862, the regiment's casualties were 60 per cent. of the number taken into battle. Its commander, Col. Donnelly, was mortally wounded, and Lieut.-Col. Brown was wounded his cound resulting in the amputation of his left arm. While in the field hospital he was captured and taken to Libby Prison, but was exchanged in October, commissioned Colonel of his regiment and commanded it until mustered out.

At the opening of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers near Dayton, Ohio, he was appointed acting governor, and when the branches had increased so that inspections were required, he was appointed Inspector-General, which office he held until his death.

The dedication of the monument to his old regiment last August in the National Cemetery at Culpepper, Va., and the unveiling of the equestrian statue to Major, Gen. Slocum at Gettysburg last September severely taxed his physical endurance, as he was then nearing his eightieth birthday, and within a month its serious effects were shown in an irregular action of his heart, which compelled him to keep to his room.

The funeral will be at his family home in Medina, N. Y., on Tuesday. A service will also be held in the chapel of the Presbyterian Hospital here to-morrow afternoon. per cent. of the number taken into battle.

PINS SET UP TO BEAT MACK IN COUNTY COMMITTEE.

Now Mack's Friends Say Kalser Made a Pre-Election Bargain Like the One That Cost Guden His Job in Kings -W. C. Warren Sees the Governor.

William C. Warren, the Republican boss of Buffalo, came to town yesterday to see Gov. Odell. Quite incidentally they talked about the new Democratic Sheriff of Eric county, whose enemies, made by the distribution of his patronage, have been planning to have him ousted from office, alleging that he made a prejection arrangement somewhat similar to that which cost Sheriff Guden of Kings his place.

Harry M. Kaiser, a former police captain, was elected Sheriff on the Democratic ticket, although Gov. Odell carried Erie county. The factional Democrats who oppose the rule of National Committeeman Norman E. Mack won Sheriff Kaiser to their side and the offices were distributed among members of the County Committee in such a way as to prepare for the election of an anti-Mack chairman. Mr. Mack, who had been out in Colorado Springs, came home and got busy right away.

His friends allege that to secure funds for his canvass Sheriff Kaiser entered into an agreement with men hostile to Mack which disposed of the appointments in the office if it went no farther. Since Sheriff office if it went no farther. Since Sheriff Kaiser's stand has been disclosed Mr. Mack has been trying to show that the Sheriff ought to forfeit his office and charges have been prepared for presentation to the Governor. Naturally Mr. Warren and the Buffalo Republicans would be willing to see Kaiser removed and a Republican appointed in his stead by the Governor. Erie county has lost two Sherifs by removal inside of ten years. August Beck, Democrat, was removed by Gov. Flower because he failed to arrest certain Democrats for whom warrants were secured
